Announcing The Virtual 2020 HR & Management Conference from the Greenville Society for Human Resource Management

Greenville, SC — Friday, July 24, 2020 - The GSHRM HR & Management Conference is the premier conference in the upstate Carolina region for HR professionals of all levels, business owners, and people managers that seek to know the latest in HR innovation, policy, and practice.

GSHRM has adapted this year's program for virtual attendance, making it possible for attendees from ANYWHERE to attend! We are offering up to 12 SHRM & HRCI re-certification credits, including 6.5 business credits!

The program has been adapted to cover today's pressing HR issues in an interactive format with extra features like group chats, virtual sponsor booths, games, raffles, and virtual networking. Nationally and locally recognized speakers will keep you engaged and learning throughout both conference days.

Conference Fees Reduced! Early bird fees of $150 for GSHRM and all SHRM chapter members, and $175 for nonmembers, have been extended throughout registration and includes all sessions on August 18th and 19th. You can access all sessions, including recordings of additional concurrent sessions.

We'll see YOU online! Register today at together4hr.org.
