

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 19, 2021

Media Contact:

Emily Scurry | 864-382-0521

Greenville Society for Human Resource Management Recognized for Fundraising Support

Greenville, SC — On February 3, 2021, the SHRM Foundation (of the Society for Human Resource Management) recognized Greenville SHRM as one of the Top 25 Chapters for Fundraising Support. The chapter, based in Greenville, S.C., was ranked 19th out of 550 chapters across the United States for their efforts in fundraising and financial support of SHRM's programs.

"We are honored to be recognized in this way by the SHRM Foundation, and are proud to be able to support global efforts in this industry," said Leanne Fuller, Board President of Greenville SHRM. "This ranking just shows that our local chapter doesn't just pay lip service to these efforts; we support them wholeheartedly, and our members are willing to provide resources to further their impact."

The Top 25 Fundraising Chapters represent the top five percent of all SHRM chapters. These chapters have the highest yearly contributions, including gifts from the chapter plus recognition credits donated by individuals or companies on behalf of the chapter. For a complete list of the Top 25 Chapters recognized for their fundraising efforts, please visit SHRM.org/foundation/getinvolved/chapters-and-state-councils/recognition/pages/default.aspx

About GSHRM

Greenville SHRM (GSHRM) is the area's premier human resource organization. With over 500 members, the chapter provides a forum for leadership and learning discussions that impact Greenville's business environment. Our work helps attract and retain world class companies and talent in the Upstate community. GSHRM provides tremendous value to human resource and business professionals through educational opportunities, networking with community leaders and peers, and developing meaningful relationships that aid in professional and personal growth. Learn more at Together4HR.org and on LinkedIn.

END